Women For: Orange County is a grassroots advocacy and educational organization. As engaged members of the community, we take action on local, state, national, and international issues. We believe in building a more inclusive democracy, cultivating peace by meeting human and environmental needs, empowering women, and creating a sustainable world of shared prosperity, freedom, and justice. Networking with like-minded groups, we focus on the following goals to help enact our shared vision:

- *Advancing human & civil rights * Promoting peace & justice * Improving public education
- * Securing health care for all * Protecting the environment

Most of the groups represented at the Great American Write-In reflect the stated goals of Women For: Orange County. In a few cases, groups have been included that deal with controversial issues on which Women For: Orange County has not taken a public stand.

No participating organization may be anti-choice, racist, or sexist.

Remember to bring your return-address labels, and please carpool if you can!
