

How a Bill Becomes a Law

W4OC has lobbied for various bills that our Board agrees to support. They fall within our mission statement and come to us from various avenues. It is often a complicated process and can take quite a while before the bill winds up on the governor's desk for approval.

Consequently, we created a Legislative Update for our monthly newsletter.