2:00 pm - Zoom Presentation by Neal Kelley

2:30 pm - Q & A

Voter security is of utmost concern. The Orange County Registrar of Voters has a dedicated team of professionals to ensure your safety and comfort when you cast your ballot.

Neal Kelley is the Registrar of Voters for Orange County, California, the fifth largest voting jurisdiction in the United States, serving more than 1.7 million registered voters. In his role as the County’s chief election official, he leads an organization responsible for conducting elections, verifying petitions, and maintaining voter records.

Neal Kelley, Registrar of Voters for Orange County, will present the facts about voting in The OC along with voter security. He will review all that the Orange County Registrar of Voters has done to protect you and your vote in this very crucial election.

After the presentation there will be a brief question and answer period.
